

StreamLines®

April-June 2010

Inside This Issue

- We are facing increasing challenges as our aging population increases. See President / CEO Ken Adkins' column. Page 2
- The seventh annual Aging Well conference is set for May 27. Page 3
- What's cookin' this spring at our Senior Cafes? Lots of good things. Pages 4-6
- Alcohol and drug abuse can be a problem at any age. Page 8-9

We Need Your Help

LifeStream depends on donations, gifts and bequests to serve the growing needs of seniors and people with disabilities in East Central Indiana. Send donations to us at LifeStream, P.O. Box 308, Yorktown, IN 47396. Your gift might be tax deductible as we are a 501(c)3 mission-driven organization. Call (800) 589-1121 for details.

LifeStream

Life. On your terms.

(800) 589-1121

www.lifestreaminc.org

Kenneth D. Adkins
President / CEO

2010 LifeStream Services Inc.

Golf tournament, concert to help raise needed funds

Concert set for May 15; golf outing set for May 19

The first Legends fundraising events to support LifeStream's mission are planned for Older Americans Month in May.

The LifeStream Legends Golf EngAGEment on May 19, and the Carl Storie Band on May 15 will help raise funds to enable LifeStream to continue to make a difference in the lives of isolated, frail people in East Central Indiana.

The concert will be a family-friendly event, and cost is $5 a person with children 12 and younger admitted for free. VIP seating will be available for $20 a person.

CARL STORIE

The concert will feature headliner Carl Storie, an Indiana legend who has been a part of the Alligator Brothers, The Chosen Few and Faith Band. He wrote the Billboard magazine hit Dancin' Shoes. His show includes material from his CDs, Faith Band originals, and a variety of top hits from the '60s, '70s, '80s to today.

He has lived in Los Angeles, London and Texas, but calls Indiana his home.

The concert will be 7-10 p.m. at Morrow's Meadow, Yorktown, and gates will open at 5 p.m. Tickets are available

Fame Sponsors

Wisdom Sponsors

Character Sponsors

at LifeStream and at Yorktown area businesses.

On May 19, other legends, including former Colts and Purdue quarterback Mark Herrmann, will participate with local golfers in the first Legends EngAGEment event at 1 p.m. May 19 at The Players Club in Yorktown. Spots are filling up, so sign up today at www.lifestreaminc.org. Cost is $60 a person and includes lunch, golf, cart and opportunities to win prizes. Online registration includes a one-year subscription to Golf Digest. Call (800) 589-1121 or visit lifestreaminc.org.

Major sponsors (listed above) are joined by the following in supporting both events. They are David Dale Designs, Morgan Automotive, AARP, Beauchamp and McSpadden, GNC Anderson, Krieg Devault, St. John's Health System, Community Hospital,

Continued on Page 9